MLTE Mountain Leader Assessment

Overview

The highly regarded Mountain Leader Award is the basic qualification for taking groups out mountain walking in the British Isles in non-winter conditions. This course seeks to assess, over 6 days, all the knowledge and skills you require to competently and safely take responsibility for others within the remit of the award. Dallam's ML courses are inexpensive, popular and well received; we hope you decide to do your assessment with us.

Cost and Dates: Please see the website for the most up-to-date information.

Please arrive for a 6.30pm start on the first day of your course in order to permit introduction and administration time without compromising the practical days. We will use a wide range of venues in the Lakes and Dales for the practical assessment.

Accommodation

This is a non-residential course. There are many B&Bs and 2 youth hostels close to Dallam.

Content

The course will examine:

- Macro and micro navigation
- Night navigation
- Group management in the mountain environment
- Emergency procedures
- Emergency rope work
- Meteorology
- Personal and group equipment
- River crossing
- Camp craft and expedition skills
- Environmental understanding

Every day of the course will be run in a practical manner with a 2 night wild camping expedition over the final 3 days. There will be an indoors evening session on one further occasion (usually the second night) which should finish no later than 9pm. We may send out a written paper in advance or decide to complete one during the evening session.
